Recessional

Everything Mom

How did you find the energy, Mom

To do all the things you did,

To be a teacher, nurse, and counselor

To me when I was a kid.

How did you do it all, Mom,

Be a chauffeur, cook and friend,

Yet find time to be a playmate

I just cant comprehend.

I see now it was love, Mom

That made you come whenever I'd call

Your inexhaustible love, Mom

And I thank you for it all

OBITUARY

Mae Willie Washington was born February 7, 1948 to the late Willie Robert Reed and Nannie Lou Reed.

Mae confessed Christ and joined Wall Street A.M.E. Zion Church.

She was preceded in death by one sister Nettie Larkin and a brother -in- law, Frank Larkin.

Mae leaves to cherish her memory to two sons: John (Roberta) Washington and Christopher Washington both of Tallassee, AL; one goddaughter, Crystal Bently of Tallassee, AL; three granddaughters, Johnequa (Cedric) Wooden of Montgomery, AL, Stephanie Washington and Ayanda Washington both of Tallassee, AL; two grandsons, Kenneth Hooks of Tuscaloosa, AL and Romelo Hooks of Huntsville, AL; one nephew, Eddie (Gloria) Reed of Santuck, AL; one aunt, Willie Mae (Jeffery) Jackson of Tallassee, AL; some special friends, Morgan, Brooklyn, Raja, Aubrey, Addy, and Joseph; our family dog, Tiny, and a host of other family members.

A Mother & Son

There's a very special bond between a mother and her son, A closeness which grows deeper through the years.

It's marked by tender moments, crazy antics, quiet talks, and strengthen as they share their hopes and fears.

It forms and it develops very early on in life
When he's unsure, but she says, "Yes, you can!"

The bond remains unbroken growing ever stronger still, until her little becomes a man.

Then, as they both grow older, little things begin to change... And she learns she can rely upon her son

Life completes its circle, though at times to her its strange, for in her heart he's still her little one.
