POEMS

THE DAY GOD TOOK YOU HOME

*A million times I've needed you A million times I've cried,
If love alone could have saved you
You never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place,
No one else can ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
Part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.
Love, Shundra*

MY WARRIOR

So, the time has come to say goodbye
And many times I want to ask why
I know that you're in a better place
But it still hurts to know I can no longer physically see your face
You taught me things I never even realized Even taught me how to eat that piece of humble pie You taught me how to be strong when I didn't even think I could fight and no matter the circumstances you made sure you told me everything was going to be alright. I'll forever miss the time and talks we shared! I'll forever hold these memories and carry them with me everywhere. You were the best grandmother a kid could ask for and would give them the world and more! I'll always remember that smile and it was a pleasure being your child!
Love, Tiffany
